

ANGLO-TURKISH SOCIETY

EVENTS PROGRAMME

SPRING/SUMMER 2006

Members wishing to attend events are reminded that returning the booking form is essential whether dining or not. We regret that we may have to turn away members who turn up without notice as space is limited. This also enables the organisers to telephone members in case of cancellation. Please check venues carefully as we may be forced to change these from time to time. Do remember that reply slips now have to be sent to the organiser of each event and require a stamped self-addressed envelope for your tickets.

Wednesday, 10 May 2006 at 6.30 pm

The Society's AGM will be held at Sofra in Tavistock Street at 6.30 pm prompt (members only) and will be followed by the launch of *Turkish Cookery at which guests are welcome at about 7.00 pm with a discussion panel of experts associated with the book . Supper will follow at approximately 8.00 pm.

Cost of supper: £17.50 per person including ½ a bottle of wine per person.

This event will be organised by Mrs Naciye O'Reilly.

Please reply no later than Wednesday, 3 May 2006.

Wednesday, 31 May 2006 at 7.15 pm

Concert at Canan Maxton's house by the internationally known pianist, Gülsin Onay followed by supper. The concert will include music by Schumann, Elgar, Chopin and Beethoven. Spaces for this event are limited to 22 and tickets will be issued strictly on a first come first served basis. The proceeds from this event will be given to a charity supported by the Anglo-Turkish Society.

Cost of evening: £30.00 per person inclusive of supper.

This event is organised by Mrs Canan Maxton. Mrs Maxton's address is 8 Gloucester Gate, Regent's Park, London NW1 4HG (please ensure you do not mistake it for Gloucester Place, Gloucester Road or Gloucester Avenue). Camden Town is the nearest underground, although you should be aware the escalators do not always function. The C2 bus via Regent Street and Albany Street is suitable transport without inordinate delays. If travelling by car, street parking is available at that time.

This event will be organised by Mrs Canan Maxton.

Please reply no later than Wednesday, 24 May 2006.

Wednesday, 7 June 2006 at 11.00 am

Visit to Carolinda Tolstoy's house in Clapham to see her fantastic re-creation of the techniques of Middle Eastern cultures, including ceramics and decorative art on many surfaces. Make your own way to her house (map and instructions supplied with ticket), coffee and tea on arrival followed by an opportunity to view the house and gardens which are truly amazing. Do look at her website: www.carolinda-tolstoy.co.uk Numbers are limited to 20 for this visit.

Cost: £5 per person

This event will be organised by Mrs Monica Hubner.

Please reply no later than Wednesday, 31 May 2006

If you are unable to come to our launch of Turkish Cookery on 10 May 2006, another launch by the publisher Saqi Books and SOAS will take place at the Brunei Gallery Lecture Theatre at SOAS, off Russell Square, London WC2 at 6.30 pm on Wednesday, 24th May 2006, again with a celebrity discussion panel.
