See separate sheet for details and booking instructions.

Tuesday, 4 May 2004, 6.00 pm

Please note the AGM will be held before the film, so that those attending only the AGM will, of course, not have to pay.

The film Mozart in Turkey featuring Mozart's opera Die Entführung au dem Serail. This film was shot largely at Topkapı and shows how the opera was filmed. We hope to have the producer, Mick Csaky, with us. The film lasts about 90 minutes. A minimum of 35 people is required for the booking of this film to be maintained. Please therefore reply as soon as possible and before Easter to allow us to confirm the booking.

Venue: Mr Young's Screening Rooms, Theatre 1 at 14 D'Arblay Street (Soho). This film preview theatre is located between Poland Street and Wardour Street. There is a car park opposite. It is very comfortable inside with a bar area as well as the cinema itself.

Cost: £15.00 per person (to cover cost of premises)

Tuesday, 18 May 2004 – SOLD OUT

Outing to Selborne, Hampshire, with a morning visit to the charming small Gilbert White Museum (Gilbert White wrote The Natural History and Antiquities of Selborne, a classic on this subject).

Lunch will be taken locally.

Afternoon visit to Chawton to visit the Elizabethan Manor where Jane Austen played as a child. It is now the Library and Centre for the Study of Early English Women's Writing following a 10 year £10 million restoration. We shall have a guided tour of the house and garden (weather permitting). We expect to go to Jane Austen's house in the village as well.

Tea at the home of Paul and Betty McKernan.

Transport: train from Waterloo to Alton. Pick-up from there by members' cars for outing.
